This afternoon enjoy a round of Golf at Cape Kidnappers

A simply stunning Tom Doak designed golf course. This is the sister course to Kauri Cliffs in the Bay of Islands. Opened in 2004 the course is 6588m long and has a par of 71. The goal in designing the course was to create interesting holes you wouldn't find anywhere else. That wasn't hard to do at Cape Kidnappers, because the site is not like anywhere else in golf. It's an overwhelming experience to stand up on the cliffs, 140 meters above sea level, and look out across the waves far below in Hawke's Bay.
